Discover Faux Rattan Content

Natural Vs. Synthetic Rattan Furniture Compared

Natural rattan is a product of the earth, whereas synthetic rattan is an artificial substance, often a blend of plastics and resins. In this comprehensive exploration, we'll uncover the subtleties of both natural and synthetic rattan furniture, focusing on outdoor applications to guide you toward a well-informed decision.

Can You Paint Plastic Rattan Or Faux Rattan Furniture?

The short answer is that you should not paint your plastic or faux rattan furniture. The plastic or faux rattan material is not made or manufactured to be painted. If you paint on your plastic or faux rattan furniture, the paint will eventually peel and crack; the painting could also damage the furniture.
